

GOVERNMENT OF ANDHRA PRADESH
ABSTRACT

H.M. & F.W. – IIPH – Dissolution of IIPH Hyderabad Society – Orders – Issued.

HEALTH MEDICAL AND FAMILY WELFARE (D1) DEPARTMENT

G.O.Ms.No. 21

Dated:22-1-2011.

Read the following:-

1. G.O.Ms.No.402, H.M. & F.W. (K3) Dept., Dt.3-12-2007.
2. From the Public Health Foundation of India Letter Dated:6-4-2010.

ORDER:

The Public Health Foundation of India has established Indian Institute of Public Health (IIPH) in Gandhinagar, Delhi and Hyderabad. The P.H.F.I. has registered the IIPH as Society under Societies Act and entered into a M.O.U. with the respective State Governments.

2. Among others, the Indian Institute of Public Health, Hyderabad has been registered as "IIPH Hyderabad Society" under registration Act. 1860 of A.P. basing on the Memorandum of Understanding entered between the Government of Andhra Pradesh and Public Health Foundation of India on 7th Day of April, 2007 and the Memorandum of Association and rules & regulations of the IIPH, Hyderabad issued vide G.O. 1st read above for the development of Public Health System in the State of A.P.

3. The Public Health Foundation of India has felt that for obtaining recognition for the courses and to maintain uniform and high level of curriculum and teaching methods across the IIPH at various locations, it would be better for PHFI to set up a Public Health University under which all the IIPH will be affiliated Institutes. The PHFI decided that the separate society under which the Institute was registered would be dissolved and they would become an integral part of PHFI without changing the conditions in the MOUs signed with the respective State Government.

4. Under this arrangement, among others, the I.I.P.H., at Hyderabad, shall be an integral part of Public Health Foundation of India in collaboration with Government of Andhra Pradesh. The Institute would be advised on policy matters by an advisory committee which will include representatives of A.P. Government, representatives of PHFI and other eminent persons from the field of Public Health.

5. The PHFI has requested the Government of Andhra Pradesh to cancel the G.O.Ms.No.402, HM & FW (K3) Dept., Dt.3-12-2007 and to issue a fresh G.O. validating the new arrangement so that the existing society can be dissolved and following Advisory Council can be formed.

The Role of the IIPH Advisory council is as given below:

MEMBERSHIP

1. Chairman	1
2. Host State Government representatives	2
3. Other State Governments/Central Govt.	2
4. PHFI	2
5. National and International Public health experts	6
6. IIPH officials	2

Total

15

The Terms of Reference is as given below:

P.T.O.

1. Championing the cause of Public Health in the region;
2. Securing necessary support for the IIPH from all constituencies in the region, particularly in fundraising, building institutional partnerships and securing student nominations;
3. Representing the IIPH's interests in the political, social, cultural and business life of the wider community;
4. Articulating the regional mission of the IIPH, counseling PHFI and the Director on regional priorities and appropriate ways to address them;
5. Advising PHFI on additions to role and responsibilities of key executives of the IIPH, to best meet the regional needs;
6. Helping PHFI in aligning IIPH decision making and functioning to University policies and procedures established by PHFI.
7. Advising PHFI and IIPH on developing capabilities to take on additional responsibilities;
8. Mentoring, advising and supporting the Director on the IIPH's performance against strategic and business goals.
9. Advising PHFI on IIPH's performance annually against its strategic objectives.
10. Advocating changes in the State Government and Civil Societies public health delivery systems and professional career tracks so as to best utilize the skills of IIPH graduates and to maximize retention of graduates within the State.
11. Representing the IIPH at meetings, functions and ceremonies nationally and internationally;
12. Advising PHFI on ways to make the Council and Chairman more effective.
13. PHFI will, through the IIPH, in consultation with the State Government, conduct and help to conduct training programmes for enhancing capacity amongst public health functionaries across all levels of the State Government to facilitate design and delivery of prioritized and strategic health programmes. PHFI will assist in developing the public health system of the state of Andhra Pradesh in an advisory capacity.
14. PHFI will, through the IIPH, conduct research in relevant areas of public health policy in order to address the state's public health needs as may be required by the State Government.
15. The State Government will depute public health personnel belonging to various departments and categories for long and short-term in-service training programmes to the IIPH on terms, which may be mutually agreed to at a later date.

6. Government after careful examination of the proposal of the Public Health Foundation of India and considering the need for proper recognition of the courses and to maintain a uniform and high level of curriculum and teaching methods by the IIPH, Hyderabad under the Public Health University which will be set up by the PHFI, has decided to rescind the Memorandum of Association and Rules and Regulations for IIPH, Hyderabad issued vide G.O. 1st read above, subject to respecting the MOU entered between the Government of Andhra Pradesh and the Public Health Foundation of India on 7th April., 2007 by the PHFI and forming the above said Advisory Council and terms of reference.

7. Accordingly, Government of Andhra Pradesh hereby rescind the Memorandum of Association and Rules and Regulations for IIPH, Hyderabad issued vide G.O. 1st read above to establish IIPH Hyderabad as an affiliate institute to the Public Health University to be established by PHFI subject to respecting the covenants of the MOU entered between the Government of Andhra Pradesh and the Public Health Foundation of India on 7th April., 2007 by the PHFI and forming the above said Advisory Council and terms of reference.

8. This order shall be published in the extra ordinary issue of the Andhra Pradesh Gazette Dated:24-1-2011.
